"Family Ministry and Family Catechesis in the Parish" is the subject of a week-long workshop in the University of San Diego's Camino Hall, Room 150, from June 23 through June 27.

The program will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., with a special "Teenagers and Family" program on June 26, from 7 to 9 p.m., in USD's Serra Hall, Room 204.

Cost for the evening program is $5; cost for the entire week's program is $120, and carries with it two units of Continuing Education Credit.

Faculty for the workshop will be Joseph Iannone, Ph.D., a member of the U.S. Catholic Conference Committee on Family-Centered Catechesis, and Mercedes Iannone, D. Min. (cand.), a consultant for the Center for Family Learning Teams.

The workshop will offer training for Family Learning Teams, and examine the roots of Family Catechesis in the Old and New Testaments, contemporary implications in the context of Church, strengths and weaknesses of several models of Family Catechesis, and practical steps for implementing Family Catechesis in parishes.
